Committee Reports

ADRC: No Report

City Council: No Report

Parks & Recreation: No Report

Senior Center: Tammy Desten shared that the Harvest Craft Fair had many talented craft vendors but attendance was again low, the event will be discontinued. The Senior Center Health and Information Fair was again successful with great attendance. The fall Trash to Treasure Sale went well raising close to $1,000.00. The Senior Center is taking reservations for the Community Sponsored Thanksgiving Dinner on Thursday, November 23. The annual cut out cookie sale will take place on Nov. 30 and Dec 1. The Senior Center is currently holding a honey glazed mixed nut fundraiser; one pound bag for $3.00. We have completed the interview process for the Assistant Cook position, planning to have the new person in place before the holidays.

TRIAD: Philip Smogolski discussed the breach at Equifax, free credit monitoring is available for 12 months by applying before Nov. 21. You obtain free credit reports; one per year, per agency. If you stagger your requests every 4 months, you can monitor your credit continually without being charged. Philip shared an article “Are Your Bank Accounts at Risk?”
