

DID YOU KNOW?

...when the assessor is going through the process of a community-wide market update, a recently purchased property on the open market will be assessed at the purchase price.

Assessors also use recent property sales to help them determine the assessment of all other homes based on current market sales.

