d. Senior Center - Tammy Desten

Tammy Desten reported 113 attended the St Patrick's Day noon lunch. Open Houses were held for Judy Goodchild and Tim Myers, both well attended. We were successful in filling the positions with Jared Rohrer, Facilities Supervisor and Kevin Boehm, Parks & Recreation Director. The Annual Volunteer Dinner was postponed due to Winter Snowstorm. The dinner was held on Monday, April 30 with 200 guests in attendance. The Senior Center took an 11-day fundraising trip to Washington DC, the next trip to Michigan for the Tulip Festival left this morning. There is an opportunity to donate towards the three new benches under the Senior Center pergola, any donation of $1200 will have a plaque displayed on the bench. Tammy will introduce Geraldine Lyons to City Council this evening along with reading of the Resolution Proclaiming Volunteer Week. Trash to Treasure Sale will be held on May 17. This year the Senior Center will be holding a Pancake Breakfast on Saturday, June 30, the morning of the Cool City Classic Car Show. All you can eat or take out options available for purchase. Kelly Tice will be promoted to Senior Center Head Cook following Barb Stegemann's, retirement on May 31. Proceeding with filling the Assistant Cook position. Discussion about holding another mixed nut sale this fall.

e. TRIAD - Phil Smogelski

Philip Smogolski reported TRIAD will be donating garbage stickers to the Clean Up Community organized by Mark Grams. Community members can locate information about number of stickers needed for large items needing disposal on the City website www.two-rivers.org
